COR-VET CAREER ORIENTATION IN VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING IN EUROPE

COR-VET Workshop III London 29th to 31st October 2012

KIRŞEHİR MİLLİ EĞİTİM MÜDÜRLÜĞÜ

CORVET is a Leonardo da Vinci partnership project that focuses on innovative approaches of career orientation for pupils in the field of vocational education and training.

We had already established the project and worked together on the educational systems in the different partner countries and also on the national career orientation approaches. The Website of the project <http://www.cor-vet.eu> was designed and went online. So far we have run 3 project's meeting in Paderborn, Kirsehir and London.

Our third meeting was in London. The workshop in London From 29 to 31 October, the Meeting of the CORVET- project was taken place in London by ELN.

The project involves partners of five institutions from four different countries, Italy, UK, Turkey and Germany. The Turkish Delegation was formed with 4 participants, 2 were staff 2 were teachers.

As soon as we dropped our baggage at hotel – Travelodge Aldgate East, London we tried to our best to reach the conference room but we failed. We travelled nearly 16 hours to London, when we were in London we saw that the traffic was so crowded that we missed some part of the meeting. As we entered the conference room the programme was running by the Italian team. The working day had been started of the workshop at Idea Store Whitechapel.

Unfortunately we missed those presentations but we later got them while we were having coffee break and evening at hotel

-Marc Beutner, University Paderborn had Overviewed on the LONDON-workshop and results of the evaluation of 2nd workshop in KIRŞEHİR, Turkey

-The new COR-VET concept of the Career Orientation Approach in United Kingdom and British didactical material for Career Orientation

All partners had gathered in the meeting room and had a very long day discussing the project phases of CORVET as well as the dissemination strategy. This day also contained presentations of each partner country about The new COR-VET concept of the Career Orientation Approach in Italy and Italian didactical material for Career Orientation .

Marc Beutner, University Paderborn Summarized aspects then Raj Pathak, European Learning Network gave Information on the evening activities

For evening we travelled a tour of East London and then everyone had a meal. We spent interesting days in Uk with a lot of new points of view on which to work on, the unusual tour of London

The other day on Tuesday, October 30th: We started at 9:30 and Worked in two Slots with a coffee break around 10.30 we listened to Rasmus and Marc working on the questionnaire and they presented us the actual version in UK. We were divided into 2 group,
We the staff Discussed and Designed the CORVET-Questionnaire
The learners had a Discussion group

How necessary is vocational and education for young people?
And do we need a common European Approach?.

in the afternoon we listened to the manager of the Idea Store Whitechapel then we Travelled to Barking and Dagenham College <http://www.barkingdagenhamcollege.ac.uk/>.

We got the possibility to visit one of the best example of vocational school in Uk. That they have over 1,700 courses available across a wide range of subjects and levels surprised us.

The other day on Wednesday , October 31st We had Short presentations with information about current developments of the new Career Orientation Approaches in COR-VET – Presentation of Didactical Material presented by Paderborn University by Marc and Turkish team gave some information on the new Turkish educational system.

The New School Term in Turkey started 2012 and with the new term starts a new Education System in Turkey which has been called the 4+4+4 system. This system extends mandatory schooling from 8 years to 12 years.
Then the learners presented their presentation that they launched the day before

Workshop Evaluation and feedback and Evaluation of the UK Workshop (Raj Pathak, European Learning Network) was run by Marc.
In the afternoon we left the meeting room. It was really and fantastic workshop .
